EMPLOYEE OF THE MONTH

This month, Sock Monkey's coveted "Employee Of The Month" award goes to our lovely Louisa, for heroic feats of singing and encouraging audience participation whilst in the grip of Dreadful Illness; and also in recognition of her unfailing ability to look good in every single stupid hat we have managed to find over the past six months. And believe me folks, that's a LOT of stupid hats... In fact, Ben and Alan are considering submitting their "Hat Mojo Experimental Programme" as a scientific post-doctoral thesis , if only they can find a suitable academic establishment to send it to...

...is there an Institute For Comedic Headgear Research...?
